

How do you talk to your children about race and skin color?

What role do parents have in supporting their kids to become allies instead of bullies?

How can we bust the myth that kids are colorblind?

How do we create a world that celebrates and respects our differences instead of letting ourselves be divided by them?

Come join other parents and educators to explore these questions and more for

ALL the COLORS WE ARE

An Anti-Bias Parenting Workshop & Book Signing

led by Katie Kissinger, educator and author of

All the Colors We Are: The Story of How We Got Our Skin Color

now celebrating it's 20th Anniversary Edition

Monday, March 10th

6:30pm – 8:30pm

Hawthorne Family Playschool

2828 SE Stephens Avenue

Suggestion Donation of $5 – $25

Books for Sale and Signing

TO REGISTER, email

amy@creatingdemocracy.org

or RSVP on Facebook

Sponsored by creating democracy and Hawthorne Family Playschool

Hawthorne Family Playschool is an exceptional play-based cooperative preschool fostering self-awareness, relationships with others, and connections to the natural world.

creating democracy seeks to organize a democratic movement with small groups at the foundation that will manifest justice in our world by exercising grassroots decision making.